

What if I need compensation right away?

In limited cases, you may ask for an emergency award, up to $2,500.

What if I move after filing a claim?

Send a letter with your new address, phone number(s) and e-mail address, if you have one, to:

New York State Office of Victim Services
Alfred E. Smith State Office Building
80 South Swan St., Second Floor
Albany, New York 12210

You may also submit your signed change of address request online through the Victim Service Portal: ovs.ny.gov.

Where can I get more information or help in my community?

OVS funds VAPs across New York State. These programs can assist you with filing your claim with OVS and can provide immediate help, including access to counseling, legal advice and emergency shelter, among other services.

For more information, visit ovs.ny.gov or call 800-247-8035 to learn more.

As a victim of crime in New York State you should know:

- You can get a free copy of the police report (New York State Executive Law §646).
- You are protected by law from threats or intimidation from the suspect or the suspect's family. Local police departments and district attorneys (DAs) can explain these laws to you.
- You have a right to be involved in certain stages of the criminal justice process. Local police departments and DAs can explain your role in the criminal justice process, the important steps in the process, and how you can get information about those steps.
- You have the right to make a statement at the time of the defendant's sentencing, if you are the victim of a felony.
- You have the right to be notified of the defendant's incarceration status. You can call VINE at 888-846-3469 to provide your contact information.

For more detailed information on your rights as a crime victim, please refer to the publication "The Rights of Crime Victims in New York State," which is available at ovs.ny.gov.

How do I obtain an application?

- Visit ovs.ny.gov to access the secure Victim Service Portal and file an application online
- Contact any victim assistance program (VAP) near you. Victim advocates can file an application online on your behalf
- Obtain an application from any police department or hospital emergency room
- Visit ovs.ny.gov to locate a VAP or download and print an application

What other documents does OVS need from me?

Depending on the type of claim, you may need to provide copies of some or all of the following when you file your application online or via surface mail:

- Police reports
- Insurance cards
- Receipts for essential personal property
- Victim's birth certificate
- Death certificate and funeral contract
- Itemized medical bills
- Letters from any insurers denying or authorizing payment for the services listed on this form
- Proof of age (driver's license, birth certificate etc.)
- Legal guardianship papers

What if I don't have the documents OVS needs?

You may submit an application and then send required documents as soon as you are able.

Please keep in mind that OVS cannot make a decision on your application without the required documents, as they are necessary to determine if you are eligible for assistance.

What is the HIPAA authorization form?

This form allows providers to discuss health information with OVS. You must sign this form for each health care provider that has treated you.

Who can sign the application?

The victim must sign the application. If the victim is under 18 or is physically or mentally incapable of signing, then his/her legal guardian must sign.
