Installing Haiku and Mobileiron from Scratch Android v7

One issue that you may notice is that MobileIron may prompt you to configure the email on the device again after everything has completed successfully. If this should happen please ignore the message and just close the MobileIron App. This will keep popping up so just close the window and ignore the message. To prevent this from occurring going forward please disable notifications from the MobileIron App in the Notification settings on the device. Please contact the Enterprise Service Desk for any issues encountered.
